GOOD FEELING PREVAILS.

The People are Ready and Want the Fiscal Court to Act.

We have talked to quite a number of Adair county's best citizens and tax payers within the last three weeks concerning the improvements that should be made in the county in the way of bridges and roads, and so far we have found every man on the progressive side of every proposition. The good that the people have and are deriving from the bridges already built, and the small portions of good roads made within the last year or two, together with the tremendous amount of mud holes where solid roads were not made, is calling attention to the importance of more bridges and better roads. The tax payers are willing to put up for such improvements, but are not willing to pay a heavy tax unless solid, substantial improvements are realized. The Fiscal court should weigh well both of these questions and set the standard of attainment high. A full levy for road and bridge purposes will create a fund, if properly applied, for 4 years, that will build all the bridges needed and make many miles of pike where the people will co-operate with the county in this important work. If we are to have better roads we must apply stone, and the crushing of the stone is the most serious proposition with the people. If the Fiscal court will purchase a rock crusher and operate it where the people are willing to spread the stone, then new life and energy will assert their hatred for mud holes, and a new era will be brought about, but if the people are not aided in this manner, then we cannot see the use of spending much money fooling with the roads.

The whole story is briefly summed up as follows; three or four more bridges are badly needed; every part of the county has bad roads; the people are thoroughly awake to the importance of both the bridges and roads and are willing to be taxed to get them.

The Magistrates and County Judge have been elected to protect and advance the interest of the county, and if it is their opinion that these improvements will do it, then it becomes their duty to span the streams and blot out the mud holes.

The time to begin is this year and an uninterrupted pull of four years will show the worth of this move.

FRATERNAL AND BENEFIT SOCIETY.

Woodmen of the World on a Boom in Columbia—Organized with 27 Members.

Mr. T. S. Nelligan, of Louisville, Ky., Dist. Master of the Woodmen of the World, who has been in our town for the past week, working in the interest of the Order, has met with great success. He instituted a camp here, Friday night, the 19th inst., of 27 members, composed of some of our best citizens and he says that before he gets through, he will have a camp of 50 good substantial men. Mr. Nelligan says the charter is still open, and those wishing to take advantage of it should do so at once.

This camp is to be known as Nelligan Camp, that being the name selected at their meeting. Mr. Nelligan is highly elated with the honor conferred on him and it is but natural that he will give a great deal of his time to the camp that bears his name.

The following officers of the Camp were elected:

John W. Flowers, Consul Commander.
Geo. T. Flowers, Advisor Lieutenant.
S. L. Powell, Banker.
Sam N. Hancock, Clerk.
M. C. Winfrey, Escort.
W. Fred Myers, Watchman.
S. C. Strange, Sentinel.
R. Y. Hindman, Physician.
T. B. Cravens, Capt. of Degree Team.

Sam F. White
John F. Neat
S. W. Beck
J. Mc. Scott, Past Consul Commander.

Nelligan Camp starts out under very favorable prospects and we predict for it a great future. The Camp meets to-night, Tuesday.

Mrs. Sue Grissom, of Bliss, who has been afflicted for several months with a sprained ankle and had just recovered sufficiently to take exercise, was thrown from a buggy Friday and the healing tendons painfully wrenched.

"KENTUCKIAN'S HOME COMING WEEK."

Outline of the Program of Big Event in Louisville next June.

The programme for "Home Coming Week" in Louisville, June 13 to 17, when one hundred thousand former Kentuckians are expected to go back to their native heath, is rapidly taking shape.

The first day, Wednesday, June 13, will be known as Reception and Welcome day; the second, June 14, as Foster day; the third, June 15, as Daniel Boone day; the fourth, June 16, as Greater Kentucky day; and the fifth, Sunday June 15, as, "Until We Meet Again."

The address of welcome is to be delivered by Henry Watterson, and responded to by David R. Francis, of Missouri. Others on the programme are Wm. Lindsay, John G. Carlisle, John M. Harlan, Thos. T. Crittenden, Adlia E. Stephenson, etc.

There will be a civic and military parade on the first day, and every county in the State will establish headquarters in the new Armory, which is the second largest building of the kind in the United States. On Foster day there will be several events in memory of the author of "My Old Kentucky Home," including the unveiling of a statue of Foster, which will later be cast in bronze and placed in the new Capitol at Frankfort. Daniel Boone Day will be one of the features of the week, during which there will be sewing bees, apple parings, corn huskings and old-fashioned dances. The commercial club has offered a handsome medal to the person present on Daniel Boone Day, who can prove the closest relationship to the great pioneer. On Greater Kentucky Day, there will be barbecues, campfires, etc., and orators will be given the opportunity to tell how Kentuckians have helped make other States greater by their having lived in them. On Sunday former Kentuckians will fill all the pulpits in Louisville. Send names and addresses of any former Kentuckians you may know to R. E. Hughes, Secretary Commercial Club, Louisville.

KENTUCKIANS TO HONOR FOSTER'S MEMORY.

The second day of "Home Coming Week" for Kentuckians in Louisville, June 13 to 17, will be known as Foster Day, when a statue of the author of my "Old Kentucky Home" will be unveiled. The money to pay for this statue is being contributed by the school children of Kentucky. The children of the Louisville public schools have already contributed several hundred dollars. Prof. Jas. H. Fuqua, Sr., State Superintendent of Public Instruction, has issued a letter to all city and county superintendents urging them to urge the teachers in their jurisdictions to explain the plan to their pupils and take up collections. If every school in the State will raise only a few dollars there will be enough money on hand to pay for the statue, which will cost about $6,000.

FORMER KENTUCKIANS GOING BACK HOME.

The Louisville Commercial club is receiving daily hundreds of names of former Kentuckians residing in different countries who request that invitations be sent them to "Home Coming week" in Louisville, June 13 to 17. The Commercial Club, under whose auspices the event will be given, has already received several thousand names, covering every State and territory in this Union, and thirteen foreign countries. The Commercial Club invites all Kentuckians to send to it the names and addresses of any friends or relatives who now reside elsewhere. These names should be forwarded at once to R. E. Hughes, Secretary, Louisville.

"KENTUCKY HOME COMING" NEWS NOTES.

It is believed that the railroads will grant a rate of one fare for the round trip from all parts of the United States to Louisville on account of "Home Coming Week" for all Kentuckians, June 13 to 17.

The "Home Coming Week" Committee in Louisville is arranging the following awards: A medal to the former Kentuckian present, who comes the greatest distance; a medal to the former Kentuckian present who has lived longest outside the State without having returned; a medal to the former Kentuckian present who left the State at the tenderest age; a medal to the former Kentuckian present who left the State at the most advanced age.

There will probably be in effect after "Home Coming Week" in Louisville, June 13 to 17, a rate of one cent per mile for former Kentuckians who attend the "Home Coming week" ceremonies and wish to visit friends and relatives out in the State.

Governor J. C. W. Beckham has been asked by the "Home Coming Week" Committee to appoint a Commissioner for every county in the State, to officially represent the counties during "Home Coming Week" in Louisville. These Commissioners will be in charge of the various county headquarters, where county registers to enroll the names of visitors, will be opened.

The last Federal census shows that there are 600,000 former Kentuckians living in other States. The Louisville Commercial Club wants to get the names and addresses of as many of these former Kentuckians as possible, and anyone having friends or relatives who have moved from the State, will confer a favor upon the Club by sending the names to R. E. Hughes, Secretary, Louisville.

WHAT THE EDITORS SAY.

(Evening Post.)

Owensboro Messenger suggests watching some of the bill ground out by the legislative hopper.

"It's cheaper to die," says Editor Landrum, of the Central Record, "than attempt the consumption cure of 18 raw eggs every day at the present price of eggs."

According to the philosophy of Editor Friel, of the Ashley Independent, it is much easier to pretend to be what you are, than to hide what you really are.

Kentucky State Journal thinks a few of the hundreds of bills being thrown in the legislative hopper will be found in the finished grist. "Reforms," says the paper, "like Rome, are not built in a day."

Murray Times, Calloway, gives an account of how a mother succeeded in curing a son of the cigarette habit by the "laying on of hands" remedy. One dose in the cases given, brought about a speedy cure.

Elizabethtown News predicts great things for the year, and has an optimistic confidence amounting to elation, and think it will outdo all records so far as business interests are concerned.

Benton Tribune, Democrat, accuses Judge Paynter of "painting Frankfort very red during a recent visit when he met Blackburn and Haldeman." The paper adds: "Mr Blackburn accepted his defeat cheerfully, for he is a grand old man."

P a d u c a h News-Democrat thinks "loan sharks" who tempt poor people to borrow money and charge interest many times greater than the original loan, should be put out of business. The city recently raised the license from $25 to $125 per year, and the paper says it was a laudable thing.

The Cincinnati daily papers will suffer in consequence of Bath county, Ky., going "dry," thinks the Ashland Independent. Sensational specials, report of murders, etc., will diminish 50 per cent.

POULTRY PICKINGS.

The breeds are not profitable if they are mismanaged.

The smaller the poultry quarters the cleaner they must be kept.

Provide nests where they are handy for hens and handy to gather eggs from.

Poultry is the cheapest, most economical and best meat raised on the farm.

Coarse food promotes digestion and helps to keep the fowls in a healthy condition. Feed as much of it as possible.

Do not simply throw the water out of the drinking vessels and put in fresh water, but wash the vessels thoroughly every time you change the water.

We suspect that in a good many cases where the egg yield fails to come, though all due attention is said to be given to the poultry, the fault is due to irregular care.

If market poultry is chiefly desired, begin by killing off all two-year-old birds. Discard also all of the late hatched stock, as breeding from these tends to decrease the size of our stock.

An experienced farmer poultryman says that the best way to keep poultry droppings is to put them in a barrel and keep them slightly moist, using dish-water or soapuds where available.

When fenced away from gardens and flower beds fowls cause but little annoyance on the farm. They do an immense amount of good in protecting crops by destroying insects.

Only 82 Years Old.

"I am only 82 years old and don't expect even when I get to be real old to feel that way as long as I can get Electric Bitters," says Mrs. E. H. Brunson, of Dublin, Ga. "Surely there's nothing else keeps the old as young and makes the weak as strong as this grand tonic medicine. Dyspepsia, torpid liver, inflamed kidneys or chronic constipation are unknown after taking Electric Bitters a reasonable length of time. Guaranteed by T. E. Paull, druggist. Price 50c."

TH

Woman's Realm

MEN LIKE HEALTHY GIRLS.

I know a young woman who says she does not know what it is to have a "well" day.

If you ask her how she feels she invariably has a headache or indigestion or an attack of nervousness or some other ailment.

"I am a perfect martyr," she will tell you complacently. This may be so, but I notice that the "martyr" is always able to eat three hearty meals a day.

The truth is that most of her ailments are imaginary. She loves to pose as a semi-invalid.

The other day I heard her telling a man how nervous and highly strung she was.

"Oh, you goose," I said to myself, "Can't you see what a mistake you are making in telling a man all this; his admiration for you is decreasing visibly?"

The man in question had been paying her quite marked attention, but I very much doubt if he continues it after that conversation.

No man wants to tie himself down to a complaining invalid for life.

He is not looking for a burden to shoulder, but a helpmate to walk cheerily beside him.

Men have a profound admiration for wholesome and health.

Some girls seem to think it rather elegant to be delicate and helpless.

Delicacy of constitution is a great misfortune, and as for the helpless girl, she went out of fashion some years ago.

There is no habit more easily acquired than the one of always having something the matter with you.

Don't make a mountain out of every little mole hill of an indisposition you may have.

Keep your small ailments to yourself.

If you whine over every little pain you will get no sympathy when some real pain attacks you.

People grow weary of offering sympathy, especially when they know there is no genuine cause for it.

Very often the real sufferers are the ones who make no complaint.

"It is bad enough," said one brave woman, "to know it myself, without bothering all my friends with my woes."

The would-be invalid adopt such a doleful face and voice when you ask them how they are.

The fact is they thoroughly enjoy their pose and would not for worlds acknowledge that they are perfectly well and strong.

Take advice, girls and never lay claim to invalidism when talking to a man.

He will admire you much more if you are well and strong. He doesn't want to hear about weak nerves and ailments.

Health is the greatest blessing in the world. Don't despise it. —Philadelphia Bulletin.

OLDEST OF BEAUTY SHOPS.

Nearly 400 years ago, says the New York Herald, the Convent of Santa Maria Novella, in Florence, began to make perfumes and beauty balms. It's recipes soon became famous through the world, and the perfume of Santa Maria Novella was acknowledged to be the finest and greatest known.

The Medici Dukes, Popes and Princes patronized it and endowed it from time to time. Every new director added some recipes to those already in use, and his portrait was hung on the walls of the establishment.

The last monk director of the establishment was the first to exhibit in foreign exhibitions, gaining medals everywhere he went. When he died, the nephew who succeeded him gave extraordinary development to the business.

Pope Innocent XI. once gave a recipe to cure burns, which is still called "Balsam Innocentianum." The catalogue of this old perfumery contains rub and balm elixir and "Regina water," all made from herbs cultivated in the convent gardens. There is also a water to cure toothache. Some of the convent waters are used instead of soap to cleanse, and soften the skin.

Even the health and beauty of the hair was studied by these old monks, who were doctors, chemists and perfumers combined, and whose study was the perfection and cultivation of human health and beauty.

There is a quaint shop in Rome where this famous perfumery is still sold. And this and the shop in Florence are the only places where it can be obtained. It took the monks 400 years to become imbued with the necessary commercial spirit to sell their concoctions outside of the convent, no matter how great the demand.

SUGGESTIONS FOR MEATLESS DINNERS.

It has been urged frequently that vegetable diet is much cheaper than one in which meat figures largely. This is extremely doubtful except where Spartan frugality marks the table. Vegetable diet may be as costly as meat. Its advantages are in its greater healthfulness, particularly for sedentary workers.

Here are a few specimens "no meat" menus:

Breakfast—Steamed eggs on shred wheat biscuit, melons, bread and butter, coffee.

Luncheon—Apple, celery and nut salad, bread and butter, buttermilk.

Dinner—Pea soup, omelet, creamed potatoes, lettuce salad, French dressing, lemon jelly, coffee.

Breakfast—Oatmeal and milk, graham gems, honey, oranges, coffee.

Luncheon—Pea soup, toasted crackers, and rice pudding. Dinner—Baked haddock, egg sauce, baked potatoes, salad of cucumbers and onions, black coffee, wafers and cheese.

HAS. C. HARRIS, . . . EDITOR.

Democratic newspaper devoted to the interests of the city of Columbia and the people of Adair and adjacent counties.

Entered at the Columbia Postoffice as second-class mail matter.

WED. JAN. 24, 1906.

The Courier-Journal overflowed with good schemes last week, looking toward the liberation of this country, from the view point of those who can hear the rattle of an engine on every proposition that does not cost them a dollar, but when a proposition comes to help, the scheme is not a good one and is impracticable as well as impossible. So far as the reports in the Courier-Journal as to the L. & N. building a parallel line to its self, through a country it controls, is not to be seriously considered. If our people will help themselves instead of waiting for showers of blessings from a corporation that already has the trade of our country, at great disadvantage to us, it would be better. If we ever get a road it will cost the people of this section some money, time and patience. We should stand united and not drift with every breeze that whipsers softly of a bright and prosperous future while we sit and wait. Were our country between two great centers then we might expect a road even without help, but such is not the case. If some of the L. & N. competitors were in reach of this field, then again we might get a road, but no railroad company can be expected to parallel its own lines for the convenience of any people. The territory through which the proposed line is to be built, as given to the public by the Courier Journal, is strictly controlled by the L. & N. If we are to get a road, we must look to some other source. The line surveyed from Cumberland river to Danville or Harrodsburg, via of Columbia and Lebanon is practicable. It splits the center of a great country that needs the service, and is amply able to support such an investment. Its Southern terminus reaches into a coal field that will furnish heavy tonnage for a century, while its Northern limit would be in close contact with the large cities. This line has been surveyed, estimate of cost made, a close calculation by expert engineers as to the earning capacity of the road, above all cost, and based on a liberal capitalization, leaves inviting earnings to capitalists. This is the proposition for our people to swing to, and to give such aid as they are able. For two years Mr. Azbill has labored unceasingly at this work and his gameness, as well as his good judgment, is to be admired. The great possibilities for this enterprise can be but dimly seen by those who have not studied the resources of the country that will feed it, but the question has been made so plain and the resources been so thoroughly investigated by expert engineers, that its promoter and those in close touch with the work, can confidently look forward to an early and favorable solution that will send the doubters back to the stool of repentance. The rumors of good things for this section only arouse the hopes, but never bring a blessing. We are the people who ought to apply that scriptural injunction to our industrial development, "Work out your salvation with fear and trembling."

W. J. Bryan is probably the most beloved American that ever visited in the east, or figured in the welfare of mankind, and the great principles of freedom and justice. Not only in America is he respected and admired for his open, broad views of men and matters and his insistence of giving all an equal chance in the battles of life, but throughout the realm of enlightenment, he is viewed as a man of great ability, whose talents are directed toward better government at home and wider freedom abroad. His visit to Japan, the Philippine and other eastern countries is to gain a more perfect knowledge of the conditions of those countries and to be able to give a broader, clearer view of our relation to them as well as theirs to us. In Japan Mr. Bryan was most heartily received by the statesmen of that little, but powerful, empire. In the Philippines he is admired for his broad views of justice, his honest desire to obtain a rightful adjustment of the conditions that prevail. He will return, to America, with more real knowledge of that country and speak plainer after his return, than any man has yet done. He may never become our Chief Executive, but one thing certain, he is a leader of men, a man of magnetic power and a powerful defender of truth and justice.

The announcement that Miss Alice Roosevelt is to be married next month, is still going the rounds. When that event shall have happened and the daily papers unload their long windy accounts of the wedding, the people may expect a little rest. It would be hard on the readers if a postponement should occur, at any rate we trust that the event will not be delayed but rather hastened. It has already overshadowed the Russian troubles.

FIERCE FLAMES AT GLASGOW.

Fire at 3 o'clock Monday morning destroyed property worth $56,000 with $36,500 insurance. The losses and insurance are: Barren County Grocery and Hardware Company, loss $10,000, insurance $12,000; J. T. Depps, owner of building, loss $4,000, fully insured; Good Bros., loss $6,000, insurance $4,000; Masonic Lodge, loss $6,000, insurance $3,500; D. A. Hieser, loss $1,500, insurance $1,000; B. F. Bradford, building, $12,500, insurance $2,000; Brandford Bros., stock, loss $10,000, insurance $6,000; onbuilding, loss $6,000, insurance $4,000.

The fire broke out about 3 o'clock. Its origin is unknown. James Harrison, a boy, was caught under a falling wall and his leg broken. - Louisville Times.

ART NOTES.

There is more demand for artists in the present time than ever before. All books are now illustrated, even the newspapers; everything is represented by that great teacher, a picture of the subject. One can gather a better idea of a subject by a good illustration, than by a page of print.

The lecturer no longer depends upon eloquence to move an audience, but has visible representations to speak for him.

Some have an idea that art is alone a study to make pictures. A study of art includes architecture, designing, illustrating, and is a great help in all branches taught in the schools.

Now is a good time for studio work, a good time to learn accurate drawing, so as to be ready for correct and rapid sketching.

TRIBUTE OF RESPECT.

At a late meeting of Hood lodge, No. 602, F. and A. M., the following preamble and resolutions were adopted: Whereas, It has pleased the Supreme Grand Master of the Universe, to call from our midst to the Grand Lodge on High, our lamented and esteemed friend and brother, Wm. Wormack, who departed this life on January 14, 1906. He was 71 years of age, had been a Mason for 21 years, and was a Baptist minister and useful citizen.

Whereas, In his grand character of Masonic manhood he displayed by his affectionate regard and love, his delight in our pleasure and prosperity, his untiring energy for promotion of all good and charity.

Whereas, By his sterling qualities of manhood, he won our appreciation, kindest affection and regard, therefore be it

Resolved, That in the death of Brother Wormack, this lodge has lost a true, noble and devoted member, his virtues, kind, loving and indulgent husband, and his children a devoted and affectionate father.

Resolved, That this lodge extend to the bereaved widow and family, its profoundest sympathy in this hour of their irreparable loss, and may God watch over, guide and protect them.

Resolved, That a memorial page be set apart upon the records of this lodge and these resolutions be spread at large thereon—a copy sent to his family, and that they be published in the Columbia Spectator and the Adair County News. Spectator please copy.

FOR SALE.—A desirable home for mail family Location desirable, in Campbellville, Ky. Apply to T. C. Faulkner.

The Lindsay-Wilson School is approaching 300 enrollment and still they come. Prof. Payne expects many more in the near future.

The Masonic Hall, by action of the Chapter, now has a telephone. This proposition has been up for some time but was revived and carried out in the meeting of the Chapter a few nights ago.

Rev. M. M. Hunter, a Methodist minister well and favorably known in this section, died in Louisville Sunday, January 13, and his remains were carried to Bowling Green for interment.

FOR SALE.—We will sell 70 to 75 acres of our farm. Some excellent timber, desirable place, unimproved but good tobacco barn. Location good, two miles from Columbia.
J. O. & B. F. GRISSOM

Mr. T. C. Moore, of Gresham, Green county, has accepted a position as salesman for the firm of Russell & Co., this city. Mr. Moore is one of Green county's best young men and will prove a faithful, valuable man in his present position to which he is thoroughly adapted. He invites his friends to call.

Mrs. Jessie Dickinson, a lady of 74 years of age, fell from a horse one day last week, near Danville, and received a terrible injury. Her left leg was broken, the bone protruding out several inches. Her home is on Little creek and she was going to a store in Danville when the accident occurred. The chances for her recovery are not encouraging.

Some two or three weeks ago, we announced that an automobile had been purchased and it would reach the Campbellville and Columbia place on the following Friday. True it had been purchased and the purchasers expected it at that time, but for some reason unknown, its shipment from the factory did not occur until last Monday. If no delay in transit, it will be doing service for the public the latter part of this week.

The Elizabethtown News announces that a movement is on foot to build a huge barn that will accommodate 2000 mules in that city, and further, that a $25,000 cold storage will be erected. The cold storage, however, has no connection with the mule pen, but it would appear to the average man that with 2000 of the long eared hybrids in one barn, that a cold storage plant in connection would not be out of order.

Mr. J. A. Dulworth, of Camp Knox, bought two farm from R. H. Christie, one at Camp Knox, the other near Gresham, paying $1150. Mr. Dulworth is one of the most progressive citizens in this part of the country and enjoys the confidence of the many who know him. The above purchase was made for speculative purposes. Mr. Dulworth already having all the land he desires for his own use. There is no doubt but what he can give some one a great bargain, who desires a small farm or who may want to engage in the mercantile business. The place at Camp Knox has a splendid store house and is an excellent stand for the sale of goods.

Russell & Co. announce their January bargain sale in today's News.

W. I. FRESSE, Cane Valley, Ky.

Mr. J. B. Barbee has been notified that his two wagons have been shipped and he expects to have them on the pike this week. They weigh 1800 pounds each and are built for convenience and hard service.

Mr. J. A. Diddle, of Gradyville, was in town Monday and stated that the "ad" he recently inserted in the News, for two mules that were lost, resulted in his finding them in Cumberland county within three days after that issue was printed.

We are informed that the pike has received a heavy coat of stone in many places and that passage over it is somewhat rough. The main trouble is that the stone is too large to have a pleasant road after receiving a fresh supply. If the owner would put a stone crusher to work and put on a coat of fine stone over the heavy, the equipping of the road would not interfere with travel in speed or comfort.

For Sale.

One extra genteel family horse, any woman or child can drive him with safety; not afraid of trains or automobiles, covered wagons, etc. Works anywhere and can be hitched. 15 hands high, dark bay, good tail and mane and not a blemish on him. First check for $125.00 will buy him if bought at once.

THAT RAILROAD PROPOSITION.

The Courier-Journal for the past few days has been giving much space to articles about a proposed new railroad that is to be built by Mr. W. K. Azbill and the L. & N. Railroad Co. from Scottsville to Stanford, and about the biggest thing the writer presents in the articles, is his ignorance of the country, the plans of those interested and the men about whom he has written.

In the first place Mr. Azbill has never at any time been interested in a survey of any road except the one that comes from the Cumberland river by way of Columbia and Lebanon, to tap the Southern at either Danville or Harrodsburg, and this only has been promoting. It is also a fact that this is the only road that has been actually surveyed through Adair county; all others having made only in the expansive imagination of some Louisville dreamer. Besides that, it don't seem reasonable that the L. & N. would build a road from Scottsville to Stanford, a distance of 100 miles, to get a connection from the South to Cincinnati, when they could build a connecting link between Scottsville and Greensburg, a distance of less than fifty miles, which would give them almost as direct a route.

The articles referred to, stated that Mr. Azbill had the promise of Louisville capital to assist in building this road. Now, we desire to propose this question: Is there a man in Louisville who has sufficient money to build railroads that will use that money to build a road that will divert a large portion of Southern business from Louisville to Cincinnati? Louisville, with Louisvilleans, is the greatest place on earth; and so it should be with every man concerning his home.

In short, we desire to say to our people that Mr. Azbill is now at work on the new road to Lebanon and his efforts will doubtless be successful at an early date, regardless of the unauthorized statements made by irresponsible parties.—The Marion Falcon.

WATER WORKS CLEAR $600.

An Object Lesson In Municipal Ownership.

The Elizabethtown water works, owned and operated by the city, now pay a total of about $600 over and above all expenses each year, the total water rents running from $2300 to $2400 while coal, labor, repairs and other small expenses foot up about $1700. In addition our people are furnished water at rates from one-third to one-half less than rates charged in cities of like class where water plants are controlled by private individuals or corporations. As an attending advantage, Elizabethtown also has free fire protection, which under the franchise system costs from $2000 to $2500 in cities of this class. This is a good object lesson here at home in municipal ownership.—Elizabethtown News.

The above is a clear pointer that water works, in Columbia, would be profitable. It is also proof that Columbia could afford to take on a bonded indebtedness to secure such a blessing. The first cost, of a plant to supply Columbia over that of Elizabethtown, is in favor of the former. The actual, every day cost of keeping it going is also in our favor, while the gross receipts would favor the Hardin county plant, yet the net difference on the investment would rest with Columbia. If a company would put in the plant, the town would probably pay from $600 to $1000 for fire protection. If the town should put it in, it would already have this. At any rate we are doing without the conveniences of water works, subject to devastation by fire and paralyzed by high insurance rates. An investigation will show that an investment in water works in Columbia would be safe for the town and profitable for a company. If Elizabethtown furnishes water at one-half the usual rates to users, and above all expenses gets free fire protection and clears $600 per year, that would mean that a company owning and operating the plant, would realize over $3000 per annum in the same town. We need water works and it is an inviting proposition if investigated.

MUSICAL ENTERTAINMENT.

The pupils of Mr. Ohlenmacher will give a recital Friday evening, assisted by Miss Taylor, teacher of expression. The public is most cordially invited and the programme will bring promptly at 7:30 at the Presbyterian church.

A BEAUTIFUL WEDDING.

Solemnized at the Christian Church Between Miss Matra Damron and Mr. Lewis Cundiff.

Last Wednesday morning a beautiful wedding was solemnized in the Christian church, this city, the contracting parties being Mr. Lewis Cundiff of Liberty, and Miss Matra Damron, of Mt. Salem, Lincoln county, Eld. W. K. Azbill officiating in his usual impressive manner. The attendants were Mr. Clarence Smith and Miss Cordie Robinson. The wedding march was played by Mrs. L. Rounds, Mr. Elam Harris accompanying with the sweet strain of the violin.

Mr. Cundiff is a high-toned gentleman, a graduate of Kentucky University, Lexington, and at present performing the duties of County Court Clerk of Casey county, being deputy to his brother, the clerk.

Miss Damron is a daughter of Mr. Sam Damron, and is one of Lincoln county's most popular young ladies. She is well educated, and was formerly a teacher in this county. Since both of these young people are of Adair county by birth and rearing, and since they returned to the county of their birth to take the solemn vows of matrimony before their relatives and old friends, The News heartily joins in with their many friends in wishing them a long, happy, prosperous life.

CITY COUNCIL.

At a meeting of the City Council Thursday night Gordon Montgomery resigned to accept the position of City Attorney. Mr. A. R. Chewing was appointed to fill the place vacated by Mr. Montgomery, which still keeps the council up to its youthful appearance, and gives the town the benefit of seasoned timber to plead its cause in time of trouble. C. H. Murrell was elected City Clerk, and S. C. Strange, Marshall and tax collector. The questions of lights was fully discussed, and action will be taken at an early date for better service throughout the town. The Council has not yet got down to business, but within a short time something is going to happen. Sidewalks and streets will be the leading propositions and at present there is no disposition to do shoddy work.

All notes and accounts are due and must be settled. If not settled at once you may expect repeated dues and statements.

BUTLER WILL CASE.

There has not been a case in our court for a long while that has attracted so much attention as the Butler Will case, now on trial. It is a three cornered fight, the brothers and sisters of the deceased sue to set aside his will as probated and to establish a former one. Mrs. Grace Bradshaw, his adopted daughter, seeks to have all wills annulled and Mr. Bettie Butler defends the will as probated. There is no lack of able counsel, Judge W. W. Jones and James Garnett for the defendant, Montgomery and Montgomery and Rollin Hurt for the Butler Bros., and N. H. W. Aaron and Geo. Stone for Mrs. Bradshaw.

POST OFFICE RECEIPTS GROWING.

A few days ago we were talking with our Postmaster, and he informed us that the receipts of the office indicated that its class is likely to change within twelve months and become a Presidential office. In other words the cancellation of postage must reach a certain amount for four consecutive quarters, and when so done it will be advanced to a third class office and become a salaried station for the Postmaster. As we understand it the office here made the amount necessary on 2 reports last year but dropped slightly behind on the other two. The increase of business this year, we trust, will bring the above change.

SUITING LINENS.

There's white.
Colors are rich
Rose is beautiful.
There are many rose shades.
Green will continue in favor.
Emerald and grass shades will be good.

Delicate greens are always liked in summer.

Navy blue is what one may call the "always" color.
Cadet blue, and the later perwinckle, are again prominent.

FOOTWEAR FOR EVENING.

To skip to the other extreme,
there are the cleverest colored leather slippers that match every possible evening dress.

Dresses of Golden tissues have slippers to match, while with dresses in bronze spangles, the bronze kid slippers are worn.
With other brown effects the glace or suede finish is the thing.

Satin shoes have lost some of their popularity, though some debutantes wear them with the beautiful lace-incrusted peekaboo hoisery.—Philadelphia Record.

CAREFUL WASHING AND IRONING.

To such an extent has the fad for the white shirt waist been carried and so elaborately are these creatures constructed, that a woman nowadays feels certain misgivings when it comes to in-trusting the delicate fabrics to her wash woman, and oftentimes prefers to do the work herself, says the Philadelphia Press.

From the moment it touches the water until it is handed forth in all its snowy crispness, the openwork shirtwaist is a thing to be used gently at all stages.
It cannot be thrust into the wash like an undershirt; it must be laid aside as deserving special attention; there are fine meshes of lace that will not stand the wear and tear of the ordinary laundrying process; in short, the shirt waist calls for a separate department of its own.

It is a good idea if you can afford it, to provide a small tub and washboard to correspond, just for your shirt waists and fine lace handkerchiefs. Use nothing but the very best quality of laundry soap and never, upon any account, try to bleach with washing soda.

Embroidered waists of heavy stuff may be rubbed on the board moderately. If you rub a lace shirt waist at all, be sure that all the lace is gathered in the hand.
Heavy lace may be gathered double and rubbed between the knuckles, while the extremely thin mesh must be kneaded and squeezed.

It is a great mistake to wring a fine shirt waist out in the usual way, for by so doing you are likely to stretch the fabric and give it a "pull" that will show.
Knead and work it between the hands, carefully unfolding and refolding as you dip.

Every woman has her own methods of blueing and starch-ing. A very little of each will suffice for the white shirt waist.
Its beauty depends upon its whiteness without a trace of blue and its crispness without a trace of stiffness.

To dry have a special length of clothes line of the white hemp sort. Do not use common clothes-lines, as they are often rough;
pins of the spring "clip" pattern will hold the most delicate fabric without tearing.

When the shirt waist is at last comes from the iron you are to stretch it on a clothes hanger and suspend it from the chandelier or upon a gas fixture for the night in order that it may thoroughly dry out.

SHIRTWAIST DECORATION.

Tiny buttons and long braid
"buttonholes" have appeared upon so many silk and flannel shirt-waists that now the loops and buttons come joined, ready to apply. Some of them are made with colors that contrast—the peacock coloring being especially noticeable—green silk loops ending in blue buttons, or blue or green loops setting off the weird beauty of buttons made in close imitation of the eyes of a peac-ock's tail, and strong royal blues and greens that flash and change as you look at them.

SNAKE'S HEART AS A CURE

Girl Says Rattler's Vital Organ
Stopped the White Plague—Physicians Astonished.

Williamsport, Pa.—The apparent cure of a case of consumption, the family claim, through the efficacy of the heart of a rattlesnake, has astounded the physicians here.

Members of the medical profession are watching the case of Miss Stella Woolver, wondering whether a new cure for the white plague has been discovered. The patient, who is 20 years old, more so because it bears out claims made by the girl's parents regarding the cure, and apparently corroborates stories which were regarded as fertile imagination.

Miss Woolver was in the last stages of consumption. The physicians attempting her, after a consultation, assured her parents that she could not live a week. Then it was that they insisted on trying the cure they had spoken of several times, that of swallowing the heart of a rattlesnake as soon after the death of the reptile as possible. While it was regarded as merely a superstition, the physicians said that it could do no harm, and the experiment followed.

A rattlesnake was found, after a hunt, and killed before it could bite itself. The heart was removed and was washed down the girl's throat with water. To the astonishment of the physicians, the patient, who in 20 years ago, showed almost immediate improvement. The following day she had no sinking spell, and the next day was much better. Later she left her bed she had occupied and walked to the home of a neighbor.

The consulting physicians held another consultation and decided to advise that another heart be given the girl. A hunt is now going on in the neighborhood for the snake that is to furnish the heart.

QUAINTEST GIFT RECORDED

Irishman Makes Old Provision for Daughter in Will, Disposing of $850,000.

London.—One of the quaintest bequests on record is to be found in the will, just proved, of Mr. Thomas Hayes, of Leopardsdown Park, Stillorgan, Dublin.

Mr. Hayes was a director of T. Lyons & Co., limited, drapers, and left a personal estate valued at $250,000.
By his will, which consists of about 100 folios of 5,000 words, the testator left his estate in trust for such persons as his daughter, Gertrude Frances Talbot Power, wife of James Talbot Power, shall appoint.

In default of such appointment, or subject to such appointment, Mr. Hayes directed that "$999.99 should be paid to his said daughter on the first day after his death (should she so long survive him), $999.99 on the second day after his death (should she so long survive him)."

This phrase is repeated throughout the will, for each day until the two hundred and fiftieth day after his death is reached. It is added that the sums thus paid are to be for Mrs. Power's own separate use.

PIPE-ORGAN ALARM CLOCK.

Carnegie Elms Noted Musician to Awaken Him Daily from Slumbers of Night.

New York.—Andrew Carnegie is awakened every morning by music.
Just as the clock strikes eight each day, the first notes of "Lead, Kindly Light" or "Silent Night," his two favorites, roll out of the pipes of an immense organ in his home in Fifth avenue, rousing the steel king for the day and night.

Whether Mr. Carnegie wakes when the first bars are played, or whether he gradually rouses from slumber, depends, he says, on how tired he is.
At any rate, he believes in being brought back to consciousness by the day and night.

The instrument is played by Walter
C. Gale, organist of the Broadway Tabernacle, every morning, Sunday included.

DOINGS OF THE LEGISLATURE.

The "County Unit" Local Option Bill Introduced in the Senate.

Frankfort, Jan. 12.—The old "county unit" local option bill was introduced in the senate by Senator Cannuck, which provides that if the whole county votes "dry" at the same time, then the precincts that voted "wet" shall go with the majority and remain
"dry," but if the whole county goes
"wet," then those precincts that are already "dry" shall remain "dry." It will cause the same old hard fight as in former years, for the liquor men are opposing the bill. Senator Har-bison offered a bill to increase the pay of the state railroad commissioners and adding to the present overworked clerical force.

By resolution the house fixed January 30 as Goebel Memorial day and a committee authorized to select an orator and arrange a proper program.
Representative Johnson introduced a petition largely signed asking for the repeal of the law against net fishing and asking for a law to protect fish. A county resolution urging the senators and representatives from Kentucky in congress to use their efforts to secure improvements in the waterways of the state was offered by Representative Gabbard, of Owensboro. J. T. Morris, of Oldham, presented a petition from the inmates of the Kentucky Confederate home asking that the legislature provide for pensions be favorably acted upon.

THE SUSPECTED "EGGS."

They Were Identified As Being In Shoals, Ind., Last Week.

Louisville, Ky., Jan. 12.—Dr. R. J.
Slegmund, of Shoals, Ind., Thursday identified John and James Martin, under arrest here as suspects in connection with the robbery of the Albaugh bank at Shoals, as men whose teeth he had seen there ten days ago.
The five men were held in $2,000 bond
each until January 15.

GETS LIFE SENTENCE.

William H. York Found Guilty of Killing His Brother.

Lawrenceburg, Ky., Jan. 12.—William H. York, 68, was given a life sentence for the murder of his brother James R., aged 75. James Rast was given a similar sentence for alleged complicity in the crime, several weeks ago. The Yorks are wealthy farmers and it is said William was displeased over the giving away of money by his elder brother.

Brakeman Terribly Mangled.

Cynthiana, Ky., Jan. 12.—Edward Long, 32, was killed by a brakeman on an L. & N. freight train, while switching cars caught his foot in the frog of a switch. Before he could remove it, the train had run over him, cutting his body lengthwise in two pieces and cutting off his head and both legs.

Woman Beaten and Robbed.

Louisville, Ky., Jan. 12.—As Miss Blanche Tierney was going to her home on West Broadway, she was stopped by two men, one of whom struck her in the temple with brass knuckles, breaking her unconscious.
The men stole her purse containing $8.

A New Judicial District.

London, Ky., Jan. 12.—The legislature will be asked to create a new judicial district from the 26th, 27th and 28th districts. The bill is indorsed by the judges and commonwealth's attorneys in the three districts to be affected, by the bar and people.

Moonshiners Fined.

Louisville, Ky., Jan. 12.—James and Cleveland Gray, father and son, of Hardin county, were fined $100 each and given 30 days in jail on a charge of selling liquor. Judge Evans recognized the father as having been before him for moonshining in 1892.

The Baroness Has Recovered.

Louisville, Ky., Jan. 12.—Arthur Langham, uncle of the Baroness von Sternberg, announced that the baroness, who was operated upon in Germany for lameness, with which she had been afflicted all of her life, has completely recovered.

Col. Nelson Not Reappointed.

Frankfort, Ky., Jan. 12.—Gov. Beckham, in sending recommendations to the senate, did not reappoint Col. R.
W. Nelson, of Newport, a member of the board of State A. & M. college, placing C. B. Terrell, of Trimble county, in his stead.

Arrest Stopped Wedding.

Glasgow, Ky., Jan. 12.—Grover Cleveland Jones was arrested as he was leaving the county clerk's office with his marriage license. He had been hiding since October, when a mule belonging to Frank McKurtly disappeared.

Senator McWitt Sailed.

Frankfort, Ky., Jan. 12.—The state senate, by a party vote, one democrat voting with the republican minority, elected Senator H. S. McWitt, of Louisville, democrat, whose seat was vacated by H. H. Sims, republican.

CORRESPONDENCE.

ADAIK AND ADJOINING COUNTIES.

GRADYVILLE.

We are having fine weather.

The calico party was well attended at A. T. Shirrell's Saturday night.

Uncle George Flowers is making some improvement on his property at this place.

Mr. G. Whit Flowers, of Bliss, was here Saturday on business.

Rev. G. Y. Wilson left for his appointment at Breeding Saturday afternoon.

Ed Staples, Deputy Sheriff of Columbia, was here Friday.

Mrs. C. S. Walkup has been confined to her room for several days with fever.

R. L. Davis, of Portland, was here Saturday shaking hands with his friends.

Ed Wheeler, the well-known trader of Sparksville, was on our market last Saturday, with a fine horse for sale.

Paul Wilson, Willie Hunter and James Wilmore, students of Columbia, spent last Saturday and Sunday at home.

Miss Pearl Hindman commenced her school last Monday with twenty enrolled.

Our farmers have been busily engaged burning plant beds and turning the soil for the last few days.

Ex-Governor, J. R. Hindman, of Columbia, was with us one day last week.

Rev. W. H. C. Sandigie filled his regular appointment at Union last Sunday, and in his usual manner preached an interesting sermon.

Robt. Grissom, of Oklahoma, who has been visiting relatives in this community for a week was in our city last Friday, and informed us that he would start home in a few days.

Col. J. N. Coffey, the well-known merchant, of Columbia, was here one day last week selling cattle. Col. is an up-to-date business man and knows exactly how and when to trade.

Uncle Jack Napier, a citizen of our town, says the parties who have been bothering his dogs and chickens had better know what they are about, they might possibly smell powder and feel the effect of a few shot.

Mr. J. McScott, one of the Columbia Spectator staff was in our midst last Friday in the interest of his paper.

J. A. Diddle, the well-known mill and lumberman of our town bought last week of Dohoney Bros., of Columbia, a nice lot of wheat, at 95 cents per bushel.

J. H. Smith spent a few days of last week in Russell county, and while there, bought a carload of the best butcher cattle that they have bought for several months, at satisfactory prices.

Miss Sallie Diddle and her little niece, Mildred Walker, of Columbia, spent several days of last week visiting relatives and friends in this community.

Dr. John Grady of Monticello, spent one night last week with his brother, Mr. Thomas Grady, of this place.

Mrs. Lola Lovett and daughter, of Columbia, were the guests of Mrs. C. O. Moss and Mrs. Geo. H. Nell, a day or so last week.

We are certainly glad to note that Mrs. Charles Yates, who has been in delicate health for several months, is improving at this time, and is able to be on the stage of action again.

Mr. Sam Myers of Hart county, while en route for Columbia, a few days ago, stopped over for a night with Mr. D. C. Wheeler, of this community. Mr. Myers is one of Hart county's best business men.

Lewis Compton, of Portland, was on our streets last Thursday, in the interest of furs, and we must say here that Mr. Compton is the right man in the right place, for he is a good judge of such goods.

George Atkins, one of Sparksville's best citizens, and one who never knew what it was to be hard up for any of this world's goods, was in our town last Thursday, and reports every thing moving along quietly in his section.

T. G. Gowen, one of our level-headed men, and one of the board of supervisors of 1904, informed our reporter that he did not bother the people in this section like the last board. Mr. Gowen is acquainted with our property, and knows about the value.

Millard Collins, one of Sparksville's up-to-date merchants was in our midst last Wednesday, and informed us that their last year's business was very satisfactory, and they were enjoying a good trade at present.

Rev. Wright assisted by Rev. Campbell, just closed a very successful meeting at Antioch church, a few days ago, which resulted in ten professions, and the community at large as well as the church greatly relieved.

J. D. Walker and wife, Dr. John Murrell and wife, of Columbia, attended church at Union last Sunday.

C. L. Keltner, one of our best citizens, was in our midst one day last week and informed our reporter that two or three of his neighbors were greatly alarmed one night last week by every member of the family getting sick at the same time and all affected about alike. The cause of this trouble is not known, but it appears to your reporter that there is something wrong, and if this trouble should occur again, there should be steps taken at once to investigate matters.

Our free school closed here a few days ago, taught by Mr. Lee Taylor, of Camp Knox. This was Mr. Taylor's first school and we must say in behalf of him, that his school was a success. Our children improved in all of their studies, and the community so far as we know, was satisfied with his mode of teaching, and we take it that Mr. Taylor made a record as a teacher, that will not be erased from the memory of his patrons for time to come. Mr. Taylor will enter school at Bowling Green in a few days.

We take this method to tender our thanks to Mr. F. M. Breeding, the well-known livery man of Glasgow, for the nice calendars presented us a few days ago. We certainly will take great pleasure in exhibiting them to the public. It affords us pleasure to state here that he is the right man in the right place—knows exactly how and when to accommodate you. Success to you, Finis.

Smith & Nell, sold last week to Pemberton Bros., of Elizabethtown, 24 mules at $117.50 per head. In Cumberland county 50 head of cattle at 24 to 34 per pound, 4 mules from different parties at $135. per head, 1 horse from Ed Wheeler at $95.00.

While in conversation with Geo. H. Nell one of the firm of Smith & Nell the well known stock men of this place, informed our reporter that during the year 1905 they did the amount of twenty thousand dollars worth of business in this and adjoining counties. Our farmers should appreciate such men as this and when they have stock to sell give them a chance as it is known all over these counties that they are liberal buyers.

Twenty Year Battle.

"I was a loser in a twenty year battle with chronic piles and malignant sores until I tried Bucklen's Arnica Salve; which turned the tide, by curing both, till not a trace remains," writes A. M. Bruce, of Farmville, Va. Best for old ulcers cuts, burns and wounds. 25c at T. E. Paul's drugist.

RUSSELL SPRINGS.

Ex. Supt. Isbell left on a business trip to Tennessee, a few days ago.

Mr. Sam Conover and Miss Bessie Grider, were married here on the 14th.

Judge Simpson of Jamestown, was with us Friday.

Uncle Wyatt Judd is able to be out again. He has been suffering from rheumatism.

R. E. Hatfield and sister Josie, were visiting their brothers, and sisters, here last week.

We are told that J. E. Snow has ordered a nice lot of vehicles for his new business.

The enrollment of the Academy is to date, 170 with regular attendance of 125. More are expected this week.

Dr. W. B. Armstrong, our dentist is with us again.

A Hard Lot

of troubles to contend with, spring from a torpid liver and blocked bowels, unless you awaken them to their proper action with Dr. King's New Life Pills; the pleasantest and most effective cure for Constipation. They prevent Appendicitis and tone up the system. 25c at T. E. Paul's drug store.

SPARKSVILLE.

Mrs. Evan Akin is on the sick list.

T. F. Curry visited relatives in Hart county, last week.

Rev. T. J. Campbell filled his regular appointment at this place last Sunday.

Born to the wife of Mose Wooten a son.

Mrs. Bell Dooley and children, visited her mother at East Fork, last week.

Mr. Bess Page who has been visiting friends and relatives at this place, left for his western home Monday.

Rev. Frank Winfrey will preach here the 4th Saturday night Sunday and Sunday night in this month.

Miss Bertha Hurt, of Breeding is visiting her grandfather this week.

Wm. H. Baker who has been in poor health for some time is very low at this writing.

George Akin was in Gradyville on business last week.

Miss Sarah E. Wooten is very sick at present.

Mr. Ceed Stotts of Bliss, visited his daughter last week.

Born to the wife of Baker Enghand, on the 18th twin boys.

KNIFEY.

Plenty of rain and mud and not much farm work going on.

Mr. Lindsey Fare bought of Richard Bean a small farm last week and removed to it. Price not known.

Aunt Nancy Hovious is lying at death's door at this writing. Prof. R. O. Cabell is conducting his second class in vocal music at the Parnell Church.

Several of our citizens attended Circuit Court last week.

A. C. Wheeler lost a good young mare last week with a bladder trouble. She had been afflicted for 15 months.

Three of R. O. Cabell's classes met at Knifeley last Wednesday night for the purpose of practicing together. There was a large crowd and all had a good time.

Mr. Schyler Neat with Otter & Co., was to see our merchants one day last week.

Prof. R. O. Cabell spent Wednesday night and Thursday at the home of A. C. Wheeler.

J. B. Russell & sons and W. E. Bryant are feeding a bunch of hogs each for the spring market.

Mr. W. G. Aker has removed to Russell Springs and C. G. Jeffries has taken possession of the entire property with Aunt Betty Knifeley to hold a part of the house during her life time.

Some of our boys have to tell the new officers that the parties they are looking for are at the barn.

A Tragic Finish.

A watchman's neglect permitted a leak in the great North Sea dyke, which a child's finger could have stopped, to become a ruinous break, devastating an entire province of Holland. In like manner Kenneth McIver, of Vanceboro, Me., permitted a little cold to go unnoticed until a tragic finish was only averted by Dr. King's New Discovery. He writes: "Three doctors gave me up to die of lung inflammation, caused by a neglected cold; but Dr. King's New Discovery saved my life." Guaranteed best cough and cold cure, at T. E. Paul's drug store, 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

MELL.

Prof. L. M. Banley of Greenville, Tenn., closed an interesting singing School here last Saturday night. He seems to have but few equals in the science of music in this country, he has written several pieces of music some of which are splendid.

D. B. Dowell and G. A. Keltner have bought all the loose tobacco, in this section paying from 5 to 6 cents.

A. R. Keltner and W. R. Dohoney, are on the Louisville market selling tobacco.

A peculiar woman accompanied with a pony and five dogs is causing quite a sensation among the people on her way through here from Lebanon via Campbellsburg, and Greensburg. She appears to be a detective or a spy for Kate Carter, the noted detective. We have just received information to the effect that she has already caught one fellow near Liletown, who committed a black murder in Missouri and fled to his home in Ky., for refuge.

Mr. A. J. Mouk and Robert Dohoney made a business trip to Columbia last Monday.

O. B. Finn reports to us that he is running his saw mill to perfection.

Last Friday morning Mont Lisle shot and killed Wash Slinker at Liletown, Ky., was the result to a dispute in an argument. Slinker shot at Lisle three times the bullets penetrating his clothes only, in the meantime Lisle procured a shot gun and fired the fatal blow.

LITTLE ELM TEXAS.

Some time since, we wrote a letter to the news that escaped the waste-basket, and consequently have amassed enough nerve to write again.

We would be very glad indeed to read the News each week from Glenfornk, as that is our old home. We wish that every family in Adair county had their names on your subscription list, as a good live newspaper is a great help to its people, county and town. It is in the weekly newspaper that we find the records of all births; when the infant grows into womanhood or manhood and the wedding bells ring for their nuptials, we again go to the county paper for a write up and at last after we have traveled down the rugged hill of life and are sleeping beneath the clouds of the valley, then it is, our friends go to the News for words of consolation in their great bereavement. Let me plead with the people of Adair county to stick to your county newspaper, and in so doing you are building up the entire community.

In looking over your paper, I see a letter from Eld. Z. T. Williams. In former years we were well acquainted with him. We remember when he was in the mercantile business at Glenfornk, and also taught a singing school at night. He was always ready with good advice. May he live long to continue the good work.

Having noticed the prices of stock in your paper, we will give you a few prices as we got them at an old fashioned sale a few days ago; yearling mules, $62; two-year-old mules, $116; two and one half year old mules, $135 mares, $116; cows and calves, $8 per head; hogs 5 cents per pound gross. Prices are good, excepting cattle. Land can be bought from $40 to $75 per acre, but not much $40 land for sale.

There was a R. R. survey through our town last week, and if the road is built land will be worth much more.

"In the worlds broad field of battle,

In the bivouac of life,
Be not like dumb driven cattle,
Be a hero in the strife.
